

John 1.18 No one has ever seen God, the only God, who is at the Father's side, He has made Him known

- Abraham – Gen 12.7, Hagar – Gen 16.7,10
- Isaac – Gen 26.2, Jacob – Gen 35.9
- Gideon – Judges 6.11, 14 Manoah – Judges 13.3,21
- David 2 Chron 3.1, Solomon – 2 Chron 1.7
- Psalm Account 97.2, Solomon Account 1 King 8. 11-12
- Moses – Exodus 33.20
- You cannot see my face, Man shall not see me and live
- New Testament – 1 Tim 6.16

John 1.18 No one has ever seen God, the only God, who is at the Father's side, He has made Him known

- Pre-Incarnate Relationship – Ps 2.2,3,6,7,8,12 – The Anointed Son
- Ps 45.6,7 – God to God Relationship - Prov 30.4
- Is 49.5,6 – Conversation between Father and Son
- Jer 23.5,6 - Messianic Identification - Is 9.6
- Incarnate Relationship
- John 17.5 - Past
- John 17.24 - Future
- John 17.25 - Present
- John 17.26 - Purpose

John 1.18 No one has ever seen God, the only God, who is at the Father's side, He has made Him known

- The revelation of Christ is our knowing – Luke 10.22

- His incarnation is our knowing God

His Lowliness of Mind – Phil 2.5 His Radiance of Glory - Heb 1.3

His Exact Nature - Heb 1.3 His Invisible Image - Col 1.15,19

- His incarnation is our seeing who God is as a person John 14.9

His life, death, and resurrection revealed to us is knowing God.

1 John 5.20 To know Christ is to know God is to see God

- Will one ever see God the Father? John 6.46, 2 Cor 4.6